Freedoms Foundation Awards Set

Two retired admirals, a retired general, a former senator and a clergyman will be honored at a special tribute dinner here next month by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge.

The dinner, scheduled for May 8 in the Mayflower Hotel, will honor Adms. Arthur W. Radford and Arleigh Burke, Gen. Bruce Clarke, former Sen. Albert W. Hawkes (R-N.J.) and the Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, long-time chaplain of the Senate.

Kenneth D. Wells, president of Freedoms Foundation said the $50 a plate dinner's proceeds will be used to support four graduate credit seminars to be conducted this June through September at Texas A & M University, Stetson University, the University of Notre Dame and Abilene Christian College.
